RELIEF WAVE

It Strikes New York and Funds are Raised

A Former Carsonite Tell of the Work in the big Metropolis

The Appeal received a letter yesterday from Robert Davis of the Munsey Magazine in which he says:

"New York is absolutely dazed by the news from San Francisco. It will respond however to the call for help as no other city in the Union.

Here is the way they are doing it:

George W. Cohan, the comedian, demonstrated his right to the title of "Champion Newsboy" yesterday when he gathered in $1,557 in payment of his special edition of the Evening Journal, all of which will go promptly to the American and Journal relief fund for California sufferers.

In two days he has turned into the fund $2,028, besides his own gift of $1,000.

Mounted high on a bright news wagon, the "Yankee Doodle" comedian went from Wall street to Forty-second singing out his "Extra" and calling on the people to aid the good work. It was a hard day, and the actor only stopped when his manager, Sam Harris, insisted that he must remember the audience that was waiting for him at the Herald Square Theatre at 8 o'clock.

He sang a song for the hundred dollars that Maurice Mendham offered him in Wall street, smiled upon the shoppers and members of his own profession who crowded $5 and $10 bills on him at Thirty-fourth street and Broadway, and captured a party returning from the race track in front of Shanleys at Forty-second street.
He sold a paper to Joe Ullman for $50 and two more at $10 a piece to Tod Solone and Henry Seaman.

Fashionable dressed women stopped their automobiles to buy papers at $5 each and shop girls opened their slim purses to give him what they could for the cause.

The trip began in the early hours of the morning, and, with megaphones and cash bags the way was made downtown by slow stage till the financial district was reached. The crowd was great. All from clerks and boys up wanted the papers. Money was thrown from windows.

"He will take anything from a cent up and he will sing a song for $100," Allen Meyers of Mr. Cohan's sang out on the megaphone.

Citizens of Rhyolite seized a man named Gray by force and compelled him to destroy notices of placer locations on ground held as quartz claims.
Paul Knapp, a Pottawatomine Indian, has been appointed a West Point cadet by President Roosevelt. Knapp's father served as a soldier in the civil war.

John McCarthy, was an arrival yesterday being called here by the death of his father.

"Here it is" said a voice from the crowd, and Mr. Mendham pressed his way through the crowd with a $100 bill in his hand.

Cohan kept the promise and after a stanza of "Yankee Doodle Dandy" the money went into the fund.

Mr. Cohan then invaded the very floor of the Stock Exchange, while the brokers and attendants fairly gasped in astonishment. It caused a momentary suspension of business and doormen from every hand rushed for him.

"I'll go out quietly," he yelled, "as soon as I sell two papers."

A couple of brokers nearest him pressed two large bills in his hand and he rushed for the door on a run.

Mr. Cohan then started for the shopping district, stopping several times on the way to sell papers. When Fourteenth was reached the Evening Journal went thick and fast and the money came in a steady stream.

When Thirty-fourth street was reached Mr. Cohan seemed to be among his own. It was a case of matinee idol from the tail of truck.
"Keep it up George" were heard on Cres of "Good work, Cohan" and every side as bills were pressed into his hand. Women with bundles from the big shops were eager purchasers of papers, and many chorus girls gave $5 and $10. Even the newsboys in the district bought papers and paid well for them.

It was late when Forty-second street was reached, but the amount received was extremely satisfactory.
Diners in the nearby restaurants came out to purchase.

The Newsboys fund was started by Mr. Cohan buying the first paper for $1,000, and Felix Isman, the Philadelphia real estate broker, bought one for $500.

Since then news comes by wire that a box of California cherries was sold at auction for the relief fund for $105 and the last one for fifty cents. New York is all right but Chicago insists that she will beat them all. Little old Carson has given over a dollar per capita, in cash. No city on the coast has yet equaled that.

A test case is to be made by orders from Washington of the right of settlers to file on Indian land between Fallon and Stillwater included in the reclamation service. There are 32,000 acres of this land claimed by the Indian Bureau.

A survey has been completed for a railroad line between Goldfield and Rhyolite to make a through route to Salt Lake and Los Angeles. The distance between Goldfield and Rhyolite is eighty miles.
